

You can register with Harvard Business Review to get a good collection . You will find cases that are or have been taught at Harvard Business School for an MBA ... or there is something that you might not like but might help you understand why your boss is just stupid. You'll find reviews that can help you understand which of your current decisions will and won't work. Then you can only choose what matters to you. Or you may find reviews you don't really want (many of them are paid). And if you don't find any reviews, you can choose any case.
